DETAILED ACTION

This office action is responsive to amendment filed on 3/5/2008.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments, see pages 7-9, filed 3/5/2008, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 1-2 and 4-20 have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of 35 U.S.C. 112, 1st paragraph.

Claim Objections

1. Claims 2 and 12-20 are objected to because of the following informalities: In claim 2 line 1, change "A computer-readable medium having computer-executable instructions for determining..." to "A computer-readable storage medium having computer-executable instructions stored thereon, that when executed by a processing unit, determines..." For claims 12-20, change "The computer-readable medium" to "The computer-readable storage medium".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1-2 and 4-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as based on a disclosure which is not enabling. "Storing the time based on the sending/receiving device's clock" is critical and essential to the practice of the invention, but not included in the claim(s) is not enabled by the disclosure. See In re Mayhew, 527 F.2d 1229, 188 USPQ 356 (CCPA 1976).

In paragraph 0045 of the specification, it indicates "a computing device can determine an upper and lower boundary for a reference time by sending a request to a reference time computing device, storing the time (according to the sending device's clock) when the request was sent, receiving a response containing the reference time from a reference time computing device, and storing the time (according to the receiving device's clock) when the response was received." As such "storing the time based on the sending/receiving device's clock" is critical and essential and should be reflected in claims 1 and 2.

All dependent claims are rejected to as having the same deficiencies as the claims they depend from.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-2, 4-20 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 1st paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
